1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
2. Claims 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are incomplete in that they recite only a portion of the methodology required for the carry look-ahead adder to become operational, i.e., they omit essential elements and/or steps. See MPEP 2172.01. It is noted that the "BLOCK CARRY UNIT" (Fig. 1, element 120) does NOT provide the SUM & Carry out values.

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims recite a method / apparatus for performing a mathematical function.

"[t]o satisfy section 101 requirements, the claim must be for a practical application of the Sec. 101 judicial exception, which can be identified in various ways:

- . The claimed invention "transforms" an article or physical object to a different state or thing.
- . The claimed invention otherwise produces a useful, concrete and tangible result,..."

See "Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility" OG Date: 22 November 2005.

In order for claims to be statutory, claims must include a practical application with a concrete, useful, and tangible result. However, claims 1-24 merely disclose elements / steps of performing mathematical function without disclosing a practical application with a concrete, useful, and tangible result, as they are pre-emptive in any application.

Therefore, claims 1-24 are directed to non-statutory subject matter.

4. Due to the NEW grounds of rejection(s), the Office Action is made NON-FINAL.
